MEMORANDUM OPINION

This matter is before the Court on the petition of Maria Digna Blanco, asserting $500.00 in forfeited property and the petition of Alicia E. Flores asserting $205.00 in forfeited property. For the reasons set for below the petition are denied.

I.

On October 21, 2008, defendant Ana Joya De Alfaro was stopped at Washington Dulles International Airport with $28,340.00 in United States currency concealed in her carry-on items. On November 19, 2008, the defendant plead guilty to bulk cash smuggling, in violation of 31 U.S.C. § 5332 and was sentenced to time served. A Consent Order of Forfeiture was entered on November 20, 2008.

Petitioners allege in their affidavits "....that on October of 2008, I gave the defendant Ana Joya De Alfaro, the amount of $500.00 and $205.00" respectively. No details are set forth.

An unsecured creditor has no legal interest in the forfeited property. United States v. Schechter, 251 F.3d 490 (4th Cir. 2001)

Accordingly the petitions of Maria Digna Blanco and Alicia E. Flores must be denied.
